From the start Sheridan simply waded through the program, and Referee James E. Sullivan gave him plenty of time between the acts. Sheridan beat Cotter by nearly six yards in the 100 yards, and thus early in the fray it was evident that the latter had not much confidence in himself. The shot was won by Sheridan with a put of 43 feet, and this was his nearest approach to the maximum of 1,000 points, the score being 500 points. In the running high jump the pair tied at a height of 5 feet 8 inches, and both tallied for 726 points. Sheridan's poorest work was seen in the hammer, which he only sent 106 feet 5½ inches, the earned score being 563½ points, or not much better than half the maximum. Cotter made three fouls. Cotter was disqualified for skipping in the walk and Sheridan shanked it alone in the very good time of 3 minutes 51 1-5 seconds time, which brought him 756 points.
